LENTEN SEASON

Beginning Today, to End on Easter Sunday, April 23d

Today marks the beginning of the Lenten season of 1905. Easter Sunday will be April 23d, a remarkably late date for that festival. Only twice in the last 100 years has the day fallen on a later date—in 1859, on April 24th, and in 1886, when the day was celebrated on April 25th, the latest possible date upon which the festival may fall. A late Easter is welcomed by merchants, particularly dealers in women's wear. The spring will be well advanced by April 23d, and as a consequence the ladies will be better prepared, and the weather will be more favorable to the wearing of the finery and millinery which have come to be considered as necessary adjuncts to an appearance at church or on the streets on Easter day.

MRS. MARGARET ANN WOOD.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Ann Wood yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home in East Third street was a great shock to her friends. Although the knowledge of her illness was general, and of about two weeks duration, her improved condition the past few days, and especially yesterday, was gratifying and gave promise of a speedy restoration to her wonted good health. She ate a hearty dinner, considering her illness, and was cheerful and hopeful.

She was sitting in a rocker conversing with her husband when stricken with death. Mr. Wood carried her to a bed and she expired in a few minutes, never uttering a word.

Deceased was born in Mason county some 40 years ago; her maiden name was Margaret Ann Kirk, and she married her husband, Joseph Wood, 36 years ago.

Mrs. Wood was a most excellent christian woman, kindly and generous and loved by all who knew her. She was a devoted wife, a fond and considerate mother, a good neighbor and citizen, and her death is a loss to the community.

Beside her husband she leaves three children, two sons and a daughter—Mrs. Charles Biggar of the county, R. Scott Wood of the United States Navy and Harry Wadsworth Wood of the Southern Express Company.

The funeral will take place from her late home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services by the Rev. W. W. Hall and the Rev. R. E. Moss.

The interment will be in Maysville Cemetery.

MRS. NANCY CURTIS.

Mrs. Nancy Curtis, aged 65 years, of near Germantown, a highly respected citizen, died Sunday night.

She is survived by a husband and three children.

The deceased was an aunt of Mrs. William H. and James Breeze of this city.

The funeral took place yesterday at 11 o'clock and was attended by a large following of sorrowing relatives and friends.

MERTLE DRATLEY.

Myrtle, the four-year-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dratley of the Sixth Ward, died yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Funeral tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Interment at Tollesboro Cemetery.

MRS. LUCINDA SEED.

Mrs. Lucinda Seed died Monday at 2 o'clock near Murphysville of grip, aged 83.

She leaves two brothers, Messrs. John and William Rhodes of the county.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church at Murphysville, with services by Dr. Waller.

Interment in Shannon Cemetery.

The Shakespeare Club met at the M. E. Parsonage Tuesday night.

The entire family of H. L. P. Cooper have been suffering with grip and heavy colds.

Mr. W. A. Rist will move soon to the C. B. Sutton residence recently purchased by him.

Mrs. Nancy Cooper has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is now somewhat better.

Mrs. James Case and mother, Mrs. Hester Stewart, were visiting Manchester friends Friday.

We still have some "knockers" and grumblers, but they will have to get out of the way or be run over.

David Carrigan and wife have sold their farm and will move into the King property in East Second street.

Our physicians have been kept busy for some time. Pneumonia, grip and severe colds have been very prevalent.

Mrs. Margaret Herbert, a former resident of Aberdeen, was married to Mr. Ritter at Hamilton, O., a few days ago.

Be sure to attend the meeting for men at the M. E. Church next Sunday night. Everybody invited, especially the men.

Mrs. T. F. Hill and Mrs. Johanna Madigan, who suffered paralytic strokes several weeks since, are improving under the care of Dr. Laughlin.

The property belonging to the Lemuel Tolle estate in East Second street was appraised Thursday and will be sold at private sale by the Administrator.

C. B. Sutton's sale Wednesday was well attended. Quite a number from the country and neighboring towns were present. Almost everything sold brought a fair price.

We miss the familiar whistle of the "Laurance" and regret that she was so roughly used by the ice. Our people sympathize with Captain Phister in the loss he has sustained.

Word was received here Wednesday that Mrs. Nancy Brookover, mother of Mrs. I. D. Dietrich, former Postmistress at this place, was stricken with paralysis a day or two ago at Dayton, O.

Revival services which lasted three weeks at the M. E. Church closed Sunday night with several additions. Rev. Martin and his estimable wife are faithful, earnest workers and have the confidence and esteem of the entire community.

Our citizens anticipate quite a little boom. With the coming of the railroad, the opening of the proposed Bank, &c., we have reason to believe our quiet little village will take on new life. Now is a good time to invest in real estate here.

Mr. E. E. Galbreath and several officials of the O. R. and C. Railroad passed through here on their way to Maysville Tuesday. There is little doubt now but the road will be extended to Aberdeen. They stated that work will begin in the early spring.

DOVER BRICK PLANT

Town Council Does the Unexpected Thing Monday Night

All the people in this section remember the strenuous times the Dover Town Council and the owners of the brick yard at that place have had in the past few months when the latter undertook to remove the plant to Ripley.

Dover had a pretty strong claim on the property and thwarted every step the brick people took to carry the plant away.

Injunctions were gotten out to prevent the removal, Judge Harbeson deciding for the town. Officials were summoned to Flemingsburg and Brooksville, where the cases were heard, but Dover was allowed to hold onto its own.

A sum of $800, with the grounds of the plant and other minor considerations, had been offered Council for the property but the terms were not accepted.

But a hoodoo has been at work. At the meeting of the Town Council Monday night that body transferred to the Dover Brick Company the brick, machinery and buildings of that enterprise for the sum of $500, the grounds and one clamp wall.

The owners of the yard are Messrs. J. C. Shumaker, Walter Wilson and George M. Clinger, who will immediately dismantle the Dover plant and remove the material to Ripley.

After the successful fight the town people had made for so long in keeping the manufactory in their midst one would think its removal now would make the most of them feel like thirty cents.

LEDGER patrons will please be lenient and patient in regard to changes in advertisements during the absence and illness of Mr. John B. Orr, one of the most accommodating and best all round printers in the state.

Important Carpet Facts

Spring is here for March has introduced it by the calendar, even if the confirmation of the thermometer is lacking. Your thoughts naturally turn to the freshening and adornment of the house of which Carpets and Rugs are always the important adjunct. Let us consider the question from your viewpoint and ours.

THE CUSTOMER.

Three prime considerations govern your carpet and rug selections—

First—Quality. You justly expect service and long life in carpets of guaranteed merit.

Second—Design. It is your right to demand the latest patterns, the most stylish color combinations.

Third—Price. Business acumen prompts buying where you find the lowest price consistent with quality and style.

THE MERCHANT.

We are governed by the same vital points in buying—

First—and foremost quality, the basic principle of our business reputation. We demand wear-well carpets that will make life-long customers for us.

Second—Patterns that cannot fail to gratify the most fastidious taste because they are the work of world famous carpet designers.

Third—Price. Direct from the mills is the watchword of our carpet buying. From the loom to our yardstick eliminates the middlemen's profit.

We Cannot Possibly Fail to Interest You. Give Us the Opportunity.

DR. OSLER says man's usefulness ends at 40. Probably Dr. OSLER's did; but at 40 General GRANT was an unknown clerk in a leather shop at Galena, Ill. He began his world-wide military career at 43 and was President at 47.

MR. HAWKINS or Mr. Anybody else will hereafter have a rugged job trying to convince the Mason county tobacco grower that it isn't to his best interest to deliver his crop in Maysville and get the cash for it, without any rake-off for freight, insurance, ware-house fees and sich.

DURING the Civil War, when General JOHN POPE was placed in command of the Army of the Potomac after the disastrous failure of McCLELLAN's "Peninsular Campaign," his first order was dated "Headquarters in the Saddle." GEORGE D. PRENTICE, moved by the braggadocio style of POPE's order, remarked that "that was the proper place for his hindquarters." And when General KUROPATKIN started on his campaign against the Japanese, he boastingly said, "I will dictate terms of peace from Tokyo." Bragging doesn't win battles; and it now looks very much as though Field Marshal OYAMA would dictate terms of peace from St. Petersburg.

THE strike of Chicago Union Machinists, which went into effect May 24th last, has been expensive to that organization. Out of a total expenditure of $161,000 during 1904, $156,000 was used in supporting strikers. The strike was caused by the refusal of the employers to increase the minimum scale wage from 28 to 30 to 32½ and 35 cents an hour. Now, will some one who doesn't have to catch a train please figure out how long these fellows would have to work at the increased rate per hour to make up that $161,000?

LIVING TOO HASTILY
AMERICAN WOMEN BREAK DOWN
Irregularities and Female Derangements Result—Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Owing to our mode and manner of living, and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, it is said that there is not one woman in twenty-five but what suffers with some derangement of the female organism, and this is the secret of so many unhappy homes.
No woman can be amiable, light-hearted and happy, a joy to her husband and children, and perform the duties incumbent upon her, when she is suffering with backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down pains, displacement of the womb, spinal weakness or ovarian troubles. Irritability and snappy retorts take the place of pleasantness, and all sunshine is driven out of the home, and lives are wrecked by woman's great enemy—womb trouble.
Read this letter:
"I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my health and brought on extreme nervousness and despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. Day by day I improved in health while taking it until I was entirely cured. I can attend to my social and household duties and thoroughly enjoy life once more, as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, without an ache or a pain."
—Mrs. Chester Curry, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.
At the first indication of ill health, painful or irregular menstruation, pain in the side, headache, backache, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues," secure at once a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

"The Lyman H. Howe Moving Picture Co. gave its semi-annual entertainment under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. in Mechanics Hall last night before an audience of 1,600 people. Mr. Howe, with an entirely new series of pictures, maintained his reputation of presenting the highest class moving picture entertainment in this country and pleased the audience, as he always does. A reproduction of the famous battle of Mukden, military maneuvers in Scotland and the parade of the Worcester Continentals at Hartford, Conn., were among the most attractive pictures shown. 'Among the Kentucky Moonshiners' and a fight resulting in four deaths and various comic and fantastic pictures kept the house amused for over two hours."

UP TO HAWKINS

Charged That President of Burley Association Welched

Developments Which Call For a Complete Exposition of the Company's Affairs

"Did President W. B. Hawkins of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association sell out that organization?"

"Did he betray it and defeat it in an effort to secretly secure big profits to himself?"

These are questions that are now agitating the inner circles of the Association and rippling out among the farmers who pledged their tobacco to the organization headed by Mr. Hawkins. Mr. Hawkins was recuperating and recreating in sunny Florida, after his strenuous efforts to finance the Growers Association—and incidentally, it is charged, to feather the nest of Mr. Hawkins. It will be remembered that during the days when the fate of the Association hung in the balance Mr. Hawkins was very talkative, issuing an official statement or giving out an authorized interview about every sixteen minutes. That was only a few weeks ago, but now Mr. Hawkins is different. He is not so zealous in giving interviews or making statements. When asked about the charges that he had made a deal with a big chunk of personal gain in it, he declined to answer and discreetly changed the subject, saying, "The corner has failed, and that's an end to it all."

Observe that Mr. Hawkins now cold-bloodedly calls it a "corner." He no longer refers to it as the effort of the oppressed farmers to protect themselves from the strangling clutch of the Tobacco Trust; it is a plain corner—a gambling scheme—as Mr. Hawkins now views it. Observe also that Mr. Hawkins says that it has failed and "that's an end to it all." But Mr. Hawkins may be mistaken about that. The failure doesn't carry with it "an end to it all" as yet. Those interested are going to insist on knowing why it failed. Now that everything in the way of enormous deals is "off," those interested are insisting on knowing the details of the deals proposed, and just where and how and why they fell through. They want to know just what Mr. Hawkins and his associates did and what they did not do.

If the movement of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association did everything on the square it will be to their honor and credit to make a full show-down to the growers who trusted and followed them; if they did not, then their dupes are entitled to know the truth. Mr. Hawkins' ultimatum "and that's an end to it all," doesn't go just yet. The growers who pledged their crops with him and his associates are not from Missouri, but nevertheless they demand to be shown.

It is charged that when Mr. Hawkins and Archibald Stuart first went to New York to close up financial arrangements with the big capitalists, Mr. Stuart was called home by some business engagements and Mr. Hawkins was left to hobnob with the dollarocrats. But Mr. Hawkins disappeared, and it later developed that he had slid away and made a contract with a Louisville speculator named Huffaker whereby Huffaker was to get 60% of the profits and give Mr. Hawkins 5% on the side and on the quiet as his share.

When this came out at a Cincinnati meeting some of the Kentucky Directors grew so warm that Huffaker and Hawkins thought discretion the better part of valor and left the meeting. But Huffaker held the written contract of the Association, by its President, and he declined to surrender it. In all the after efforts to finance the Association this contract "butted in" and spoiled the deal. Finally Stuart, in the face of certain defeat, secured a modification from Huffaker, but it was too late. There had been too much side-show business for the wary millionaires and they passed up the scheme. When his 5% was cut out Mr. Hawkins quit talking for the public and went to Florida.

Stuart charges that the Association could have been financed and made a success had it not been for the Hawkins-Huffaker agreement. He says that Hawkins' trickery was known to the Directors all the while, but that they feared to oust him as President, because to make public the facts meant certain ruin to the movement. Is it any wonder that Mr. Hawkins wants the failure to read "an end to it all"?

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

A LETTER TO MOTHERS.

All Maysville Women Should be Interested.

Mrs. Charles Perry of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. We were so worried about our little daughter—she had lost flesh, was thin, pale and sickly, and nothing seemed to do her any good. Having heard of Vinol we decided to try it, and the results were marvellous. Her appetite has been restored and she is gaining in weight right along, the color has returned to her cheeks and she seems stronger than she has for years."

Every mother in Maysville is asked to try Vinol on our guarantee to make children robust, strong and healthy or return money if it fails. Vinol is a pure cod liver oil preparation, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. It is delicious to the taste and children love it. It does not taste, nor look, nor smell like a cod liver preparation—yet it is.

We have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children. JOHN C. PEARCE, Druggist.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace,
HOT SPRINGS, ARK., April 2d, 1905.

When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days of every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.

A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her. I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.
